In all such clauses, unless the context of the clause requires otherwise, the term "Contractor" shall mean Seller, the term "Contract" shall mean this Order, and the terms "Government," "Contracting Officer" and equivalent phrases shall mean Buyer and Buyer's Purchasing Representative, respectively. It is intended that the referenced clauses shall apply to Seller in such manner as is necessary to reflect the position of Seller as a subcontractor to Buyer, to insure Seller's obligations to Buyer and to the United States Government, and to enable Buyer to meet its obligations under its Prime Contract or Subcontract.

The following definitions apply unless otherwise specifically stated:

- "Buyer" - The legal entity issuing this Order
- "Purchasing Representative" - Buyer's authorized representative. "Seller" - The legal entity which contracts with the Buyer
- "This Order" - This contractual instrument, including changes
- "Prime Contract" - The Government contract under which this Order is issued. "FAR" - The Federal Acquisition Regulation

The following references to Agency Specific Regulations:

- All References to "FAR" shall mean Federal Acquisition Regulation.
- All References herein to "DFARS" shall mean the Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation Supplement with supplements the Federal Acquisition Regulation for contracts with the Department of Defense.

(Rev. 09/25/2017)
Commercial Software Licenses

(a) Commercial software and software documentation delivered under this contract shall be subject to the terms of this clause and the governing commercial product license, to the extent the latter is consistent with Federal law and FAR 12.212, Computer Software. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the commercial product license shall apply only if a copy of the license is provided with the delivered product. In the event of conflict between this clause and the commercial software product license, this clause shall govern.

(b) All software shall, as a minimum, be licensed and priced for use on a single computer or for use on any computer at a particular site.

(c) The license shall be in the name of the U.S. Government.

(d) The license shall be perpetual (also referred to as a nonexclusive, paid-up, worldwide license).

(e) Software and software documentation shall be provided with license rights no less than rights provided with the software and the software documentation when sold to the public.

(f) The license shall apply to any software changes or new releases.

The following specifications, standards, policies and procedures represent the constraints placed on this acquisition. All documents listed are mandatory, as applicable. Applicability is as defined as per individual PO. The most current version of the document at the time of Task Order issuance will take precedence. The list is not all-inclusive. Other documents required for execution of tasks issued under ITES-2S will be cited in the relevant task order.
